On Site Registration will be available on site at AREA PADDOCK

Saturday 21st: from 09:00 to 18:00

Sunday 22: from 07:00 to 08:30

Race number will be assigned based on the date of registration (first come first serve with a lower bib number).

Race bib can be picked-up by a third person, providing a written authorization and ID copy. Running clubs who make registrations through a collective form can request (at registration time) a collective race bib pick-up by a club representative; in this case race bib will not be delivered to single participants.

Race bib is strictly personal, cannot be rigged or transferred to anyone. Any participant found in the race course with a race bib assigned to another athlete or without any bib or with a forged one will be responsible for damage to himself, other people or items, and will incur in a sanction by the athletics federation officials.

The organizing committee reserves the right to close entries at its sole discretion, even earlier than the above deadline.

Payment of the entry fee must be made at the time of online registration with payment by credit card.

Confirmation of Entries

The Organizing Committee will send a formal registration confirmation document via e-mail to all registrants. If the confirmation e-mail does not arrive, the registrant should contact the registration secretariat at iscrizioni@otc-srl.it

Refund of the registration fee

The participation fee is not refundable under any circumstances for reasons attributable to the individual enrolled.

For any logistical, access, and participation mode information, please refer to the rules of competitive races which is to be considered valid in its entirety, excluding the chapter "MAY PARTICIPATE."
